

Developing Heritage and Cultural Tourism in Lesotho: The Case of the Ha Kome Cave Village

Tsepang Shano

Department of Historical and Heritage Studies
University of Pretoria

Ha Kome,
formerly known as Liboping,
meaning the “place of the ovens”

Objectives of the Study

UNDERSTAND

- The importance of heritage and culture and its potential contribution to tourism development in Lesotho;

ESTABLISH

- The potential of Lesotho as a tourism destination;
- The potential of Lesotho’s heritage and cultural sites for tourism development;

EXPLORE

- The development of heritage and cultural tourism in Lesotho;

USE

- The case of the Ha Kome Cave Village as a potential heritage and cultural site for tourism development in Lesotho.

EVALUATE

- The discussion and provide recommendations on how heritage and cultural tourism may be used a tourism development tool.

